Video-37

Smart Parking System

This project automates parking slot management using Arduino UNO, IR sensors, an LCD display, and servo motors. IR sensors detect vehicle presence in two parking slots, displaying real-time availability on a 16x2 LCD. Additional IR sensors at the entry and exit gates control servo-operated barriers, allowing or restricting vehicle access. This efficient, low-cost system is ideal for managing small-scale smart parking solutions.